THE STANDARD WORK ON EMANCIPATION.

MANY THOUSANDS have already been sold and the domand is constantly increasing.

Read the following letters from the first stateamen of the country, testifying to its importance:

"I have examined Cochin's Results of Emancipation, and do not hesitate to say that it is the most full and complete work on that subject that has come under my notice, and conclusively shows that, wherever the experiment of emancipation has been tried, it has always been found beneficial, not less to the owner of the siave than to the alave himself. A general circulation of the work would tend powerfully to correct public opinion on that subject, and the friends of Freedom throughout the uniton could do nothing more effectual to promote the cause of Emancipation than to add its circulation."

From Hon. Winter Davis.

It is the first work which by confronting the partial statements from which contradictory conclusions have been extended by adverse partisans, has given a new proof that Emancipation is no exception to the Principle that freedom is the best foundation for industry and order.

Its new that the principle of Emancipation is no exception to the principle that freedom is the best foundation for industry and order.

Its new termination of the principle of Emancipation is no exception to the principle of Emancipation. Its most removable partial statements are proposed to the principle of Emancipation in the best foundation for industry and order.

From Hon. Charles Summer.

The work of Mr. Cochin is able, excellent, and practical, especially at this moment. It is of infinite value as a witness with regard to the past and as a guide to the read duty which is now before us. Wherever it is read Enuncipation will be accepted as a gentle, mild, and peaceful measure, care to bring specific the accepted as a gentle, mild, and peaceful measure, care to bring specific the beat should travel far and wide.

The most instructive part to us, at this time, is the striking demonstration of the necessity of indemnity in the general interest of industry, to enable the owners of land to pay wages to the freed negro—not to compensate the owner for the loss of property, but to relieve the society from the entire prostration of agriculture.

This places indemnity on its true ground of industrial neces sity, and gives list free measure. The negro must either work or beg! The master must have wages to pay, or leave his find a wilderness! If the master can pay wages, he has as much about as before, and the freed negro the means of gaining alive iboud in freedom.
